

Hotel Introduction

MAI HOUSE
SAIGON HOTEL

Welcome Home

Discover the true meaning of Vietnamese hospitality at the luxurious Mai House Saigon Hotel. Located in an historic and charming neighborhood at the heart of Vietnam's most vibrant city, Mai House Saigon Hotel offers an elegant French Colonial-inspired oasis of relaxation to local and international guests.

Visit the nearby Marie Curie School and stroll the picturesque streets lined with local boutiques, coffee shops and beautiful colonial homes. Walk a bit further and explore the Reunification Palace, Notre Dame Cathedral, the old Central Post Office and Tao Đàn Park.

Travel back to the days of luxurious glamour, when service was all about style, and style was all that mattered.

Made with love

Embodying luxury with an independent spirit, our award-winning, family-run hotel is in the heart of District 3. A cool and calming oasis amid the eclectic surroundings of modern-day downtown Saigon. Our newly launched rooms, suites and residences epitomize our proud heritage, champion bespoke Vietnamese craftsmanship and celebrate our gorgeous French-Indochinese design and charming colonial flair.

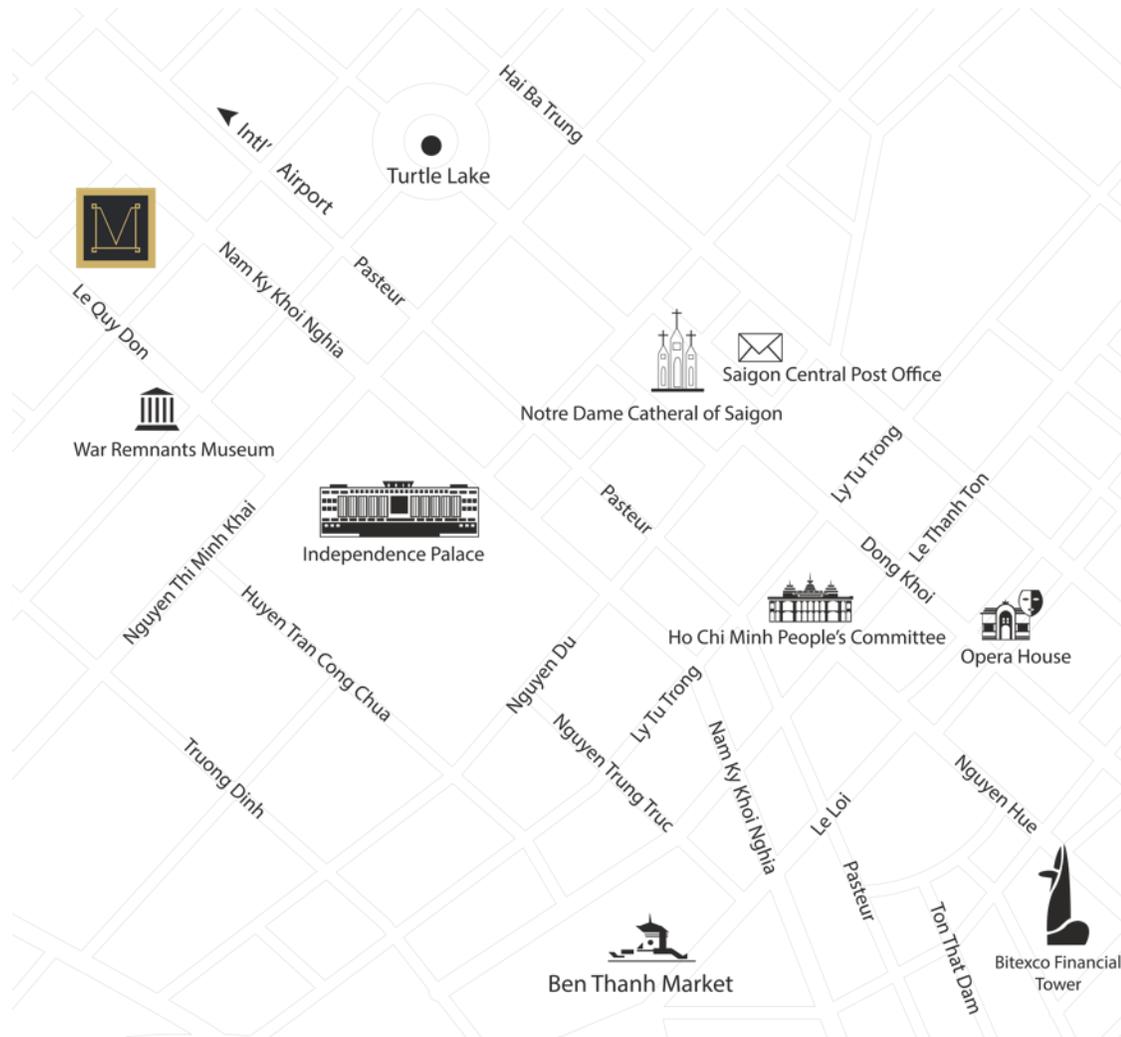

Tailor-made Art Collections

Mai House is a little like an elegantly furnished boutique gallery. Interior spaces start your journey through local culture with collections of artwork, literature and artifacts. Each tells a captivating story about the locale, providing historic context with fascinating tidbits of information. More than a hotel, Mai House is a work of art, every nook lovingly embellished with pieces that connect to the greater story.
